- V36: 28: Suppose we try to compare the possibilities of men and women as to education, in theory as well as in practice, in that case do you think that women, theoretically, rank equally with men as to education?
- V37: 29: Do you think that women rank equally with men in practice?
- V38: 30: Disregarding trades which involve much physical labour, do you believe that men and women are equally gifted by nature?
- V39: 31: And now some questions about womens status in the labour market. Do you think that men and women on the same educational level have equal opportunities in the trades and industries, or, do you think that women have the better or the poorer opportunity?

- V54: 33: What in your opinion, is the reason for this? Dont know a reason.
- V55: 34: If we compare men and women with a very high education, say university people, professional people, or the like, are you of the opinion that women actually, and everything considered, rank equally with men in their jobs?
- V56: 35: If we compare men and women without special training, do you think that women actually, every thing considered, rank equally with men in their jobs?
- V57: 36: Everything considered, do yu believe that during the last 10 to 15 years - womens status in the trades and industries and on the labour market taken as a whole has been greatly improved, has been somewhat improved, has improved little, or has not improved?
- V58: 37: Then a few questions about womans work at home, and about her family life status. As woman get more work outside their homes their total performance will increase, unless some of their work at home is taken off their hands in various ways. All in all, do you think that womens total performance has increased, has remained fairly unchanged, or has it increased over the last 10 to 15 years?
- V59: 38: Suppose both husband and wife work full-time outside the home, how often, do you think, will they share the work at home between them, - would it be always, often, now and then, rarely, or never?
- V60: 39: Now let us consider families with children below school age, - add to this that both husband and wife work full-time outside the home, - is it thinkable that this fact might have BOTH a harmful and a good influence in family life and the children. Which would be effected more often, a harmful influence or a good influence, do you think?
- V61: 40: If either husband or wife works part-time only, in THAT case, which would be the result more often - a harmful influence or a good influence?
- V62: 41: Now let us consider families with children of school age where both husband and wife work full-time outside the home, - might this have BOTH a harmful and good influence on family life and the children. Which do you think would be the results more often - a harmful influence or a good influence?
- V63: 42: If either husband or wife works part-time only, in that case, do you think it would have a harmful influence or a good influence?
- V64: 43: Where would most women prefer to use most of their strenght, do you think - in their home or at their job outside the home?
- V65: 44: Now if we try not to think in grooves, do you think that men an women are equally suited to care for the home, or which of them are better suited, in your opinion?
- V66: 45: If we think of the care of children, also infants, do you think that men and women are equally good, or which are better?
- V67: 46: Public and political life always was and still is dominated by men. As women get still more emancipated as regards jobs, education, family status, and economy, do you think that they will play a still more important part in public and economic life?
- V68: 47: If the march of events results in completely equal rights for men and women, do you think that as many women will play a part in public and economic life?
- V69: 48: Why not? Discrimination.
- V70: 48: Why not? Tradition/womans traditional role
- V71: 48: Why not? Women are not interested.
- V72: 48: Why not? Less suitable.

- V73: 48: Why not? Home and children.
- V74: 48: Why not? Other reasons.
- V75: 48: Why not? Dont know a reason.
- V76: 49: Do you think that womens increasing equalization has made them happier that they were, say 25 years ago?
- V77: 50: Do you think that womens increasing equalization has made men happier than they were, say 25 years ago?
- V78: 51: What do you think, would most women prefer, just to obtain more equal rights with men, or to obtain completely equal rights with men?
- V79: 52: Do you think that womens legal equality with men is now such as most women would find sufficient?
- V80: 53: Have you heard or read about the womens libbers, the socalled redstockings?
- V81: 54: Do you think that the redstockings have been usefull for feminism, and have they contributed to the improvement of womens conditions?
- V82: 55: Do you think that the redstockings have been very useful, fairly useful, or little useful?
- V83: 56: Do you think that the further equalization of women will prove harmful to love between man and woman?
- V84: 57: Womens new independence as a consequence of the contraceptive pill, forms an important part of the eman cipation of women. Do you believe that this independence has made or will make women happier?
