1. Sample type, fieldwork etc:

Sampling-procedure: A representative sample (simple random sample) was drawn from the Central Population Register (CPR) – which is a national register of all Danish citizens – from which respondent's name and address were identified. Thus, the sampled unit was 'named individuals'. No stratification, clustering etc. was employed.

The fieldwork method was postal survey (self-completion). One reminder was sent out to respondents who had not returned the questionnaire. After this telephone interviews were attempted. If respondents were not reached, they were contacted at least five times before given up as "not meet". Because of a poor feedback from the respondents a second letter was sent out to the respondents who had not answered or had not refused to answer.

In total 89,6 percent of the interviews were completed by mail and 10,4 percent were completed as telephone interviews (r10).

No substitutions were permitted at any stage of the selection process or during the fieldwork.

The questions in the module were asked in the prescribed order.

2. Sample size:

Issued: 1845

Achieved: 1186

3. Language:

Danish

4. Danish study title:

”Om det at være borger i Danmark”

5. Fieldwork dates:

The fieldwork was conducted from 27.10.2004 to 15.06.2005.
