- V49 6509 MERCY KILLING

- Special questions, omnibu
- 28. Occasionnally one hears of mercy killing e.g. when a husband or wife helps his or hers deadly ill and perhaps painful illness husband or wife die. One can also assume doctors of pure mercy, in some cases help a patient die. Under any circum stances are such mercy killings punishable. May I hear your opinion? Should mercy killing under any circumstances be forbidden, when it is a question of doctors, or do you think that it could be allowed according certain circumstances?

- Special questions, omnibu
- 30. As said, it is assumed that mercy killing takes place in certain instances most often in such a manner that the doctor omits a treatment which could keep the patient alive. Do you think that everything should be done to prevent this or do you think that it is best as it is?

- V58 6509 STEERING WHEEL LOCK

- Special questions, omnibu

- 32. Car theft by youths is still a common offence and often these car-thefts cause accidents for both the thieves and others. If cars are equipped with steering wheel lock, they are almost impossible to steel. Such a lock is standard equipment in many new cars, and other wise can be installed for app. Kroner 100,-. If it should be suggested, in prevention of car-thefts, that all cars should be equipped with steering wheel lock by a certain date, would you be a supporter or an opposer of such a suggestion?
